Finding a good job or career is an important step toward becoming independent. Many of your goals, such as getting a car, traveling, renting your own place, or going to college can all depend on financial resources. It can be overwhelming! The Center for Social and Environmental Stewardship's Young Adult Employment & Education Services YAEES program can assist in taking those first steps, find an entry level job, make some long term goals and decisions about careers or further your job training. We will help you make a simple plan that will, step by step, get you closer to those dreams! Calling and finding out more is easy!

How do I enroll in Youth Employment Services?

The Center for Social and Environmental Stewardship's Young Adult Employment & Education Services YAEES program is funded in part by a contract with Sonoma County Health & Human Services Employment & Training Division and the Workforce Investment Act. As such, eligibility guidelines apply.

Please call for more information. We will be happy to assist you in determining your eligibility and answer questions about the YAEES WIA Program.

Become a licensed Barber or Beautician
